

Lee Womack Scholarship Fund

Honoring a Good Man

Heart of Gold

Kids Loved Him

Lee Womack – Teacher – Business Man

Particularly fond of the Special Education Students he would visit every year to share the benefits of owning a business and contributing to the community. The kids loved him and welcomed him back every year.

His memorial donations were designated for Arrowhead Ranch and the Special Education Class at Wilson Middle School. His family and friends established a scholarship for Moline High School graduate who is going into education, particularly special education.

Mr. Womack excelled in business, first in insurance, then the famous Porkies in Silvis, and then in Milan, Illinois.

"You can do anything, but good things do not come easily. To do it right, work hard." Lee Womack