"You will only go as far as you let yourself."

Maggie began working for the Von Maur chain during her senior year of high school in her hometown of Moline.

Being a part of a company, which prides itself on personable, talented employees; she rose quickly. Omaha was her seventh store. The chain's youngest store manager ever, Maggie was managing one of its largest locations. On December 5, 2007, at the young age of 24, her life was cut short along with 7 others at Von Maur that day.

Maggie graduated from Moline High School in 2001 and Illinois State University in 2005. She was known as a strong leader, kind, supportive friend, wise mentor, and someone who always had a lot of energy. She always thought of others first and her smile brought warmth to your heart.

A fund was established and is given to a Moline High School graduating senior each year in Maggie's memory. Contributors to this fund help to keep Maggie's legacy living.
