FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Moline Foundation Accepts Scholarship Applications

Moline, IL: November 30, 2021

In recognition of the high-quality education received through the Rock Island Milan School District, the Chapman family is offering a “new” $1,200 scholarship to Rock Island High School Seniors. The Chapman Family Scholarship is available to a student planning to be a provider in the medical field and has a GPA of 2.5 or higher. If the senior has also been awarded a high school letter, they will receive additional consideration during the application review process.

“We are happy to help worthy new Rocky grads, early in their life’s journey,” sums up Tanya, Paul, and Tiffany Chapman. Applications are due by February 15, 2022, for the Fall 2022 Semester.

During the 2022 scholarship season, The Moline Foundation is administering 32 individual scholarship awards worth $60,000. Students are required to send a transcript and submit an online application at molinefoundation.org. Additional details of needed information are available online.
