NEWS RELEASE

Midwest Hope & Healing Offers Grants to Community Non-profits

For almost two decades, Midwest Hope & Healing has offered comfort, support, and optimism to over 3,800 breast cancer patients through the distribution of their signature "healing baskets."

As an endowed partner fund of The Moline Foundation, Midwest Hope and Healing now offers grants to 501(c)(3) non-profits and faith-based organizations throughout the Quad Cities region.

If your organization supports patients and families fighting cancer, you are invited to apply. Consideration will be given to patient and family coping with educational resources, counseling, individual support, and general aid for cancer patients.
